SNAPSHOT

After graduating with a Bachelor of Music in 2017, I taught instrumental music for a few years. I very quickly realised that this was not the path for me so I started investigating other career options. Upon looking into the web development world I began coding along to basic youtube tutorials and fell in love with it. I am currently studying the accelerated web development course at Coder Academy and while the the workload is immense, I am greatly enjoying the learning process.
